

Mr John C. Bower } 46
King Street
Postmaster } Aberdeen
11th October 1867
West Osgoode
County of Carleton
Canada West

Mr John C. Bower
Postmaster ( 46 King Street
West Osgoode Aberdeen 11th October 1867
County of Carleton
Canada West )

Dear Sir,

We now send herewith for your own, and your brother, sister and brother-in-law's signatures. Discharge to the Executors of the late Revd Mr Bower, for you and their shares of his estate, with prefixed Abstract of the Executors' intromissions, shewing the balance or residue for division. In executing the Discharge have the goodness strictly to adhere to the accompanying printed instructions and fill in the answers required to the annexed queries, to enable us to complete the Deed. When you have subscribed the Deed, you will please forward it to the others for the like purpose, and thereafter return it to us along with the three printed

Dear Sir,
We now send herewith for your own, and your brother, sister, and brother-in-law's signatures, Discharge to the Executors of the late Revd Mr Bower, for you and their shares of his estate, with prefixed Abstract of the Executors' intromissions, shewing the balance or residue for division. In executing the Discharge have the goodness strictly to adhere to the accompanying printed instructions and fill in the answers required to the annexed queries, to enable us to complete the Deed. When you have subscribed the Deed, you will please forward it to the others for the like purpose, and thereafter return it to us along with the three printed papers duly filled up.

We also enclose a copy of the Executory Accounts for circulation among the beneficiaries, and for each a copy of the Abstract of Accounts – the copy of the Accounts themselves to be retained by any one of you as may be arranged.

On the Discharge being returned to us, we shall immediately remit to each of you £117.11.7 with Bank interest from 13th August last, less proportion of expense of Discharge.

We remain, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
Yeats and Spottiswood

papers duly filled up.

We also enclose a copy of the Executory Accounts for circulation among the beneficiaries, and for each a Copy of the Abstract of Accounts – the Copy of the Accounts themselves to be retained by any one of you as may be arranged.

On the Discharge being returned to us, we shall immediately remit to each of you £117.11.7 with Bank interest from 13th August last, less proportion of expense of Discharge &c

*We remain, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
Yeats & Spottiswood*